MSIE Tennessee Tech

A native of Tennessee, Larry Smith graduated from Tennessee Technological University in 1972 and spent four years in the furniture industry where he worked as an industrial engineer developing cost and labor standards systems.

He went to work for Fleetguard, the filtration division of Cummins Engine Company, in 1977. While at Fleetguard, Smith worked in Manufacturing, in Logistics (progressing to Director-Logistics), and in Product Development (progressing to Senior Chief Engineer).

Smith retired from Fleetguard in 2003, and since that time has served as an adjunct instructor in the College of Engineering at Tennessee Tech University.

He is a registered professional engineer in the state of Tennessee and a senior member of AIIE. He was inducted into the Industrial Engineering Distinguished Alumni Academy in 1995.
